THANKS TO ALL

The Historical Society's recent "Tea" held at Gen. Smallwood's Retreat was a huge success. Many members contributed delicious food in a wide variety of tastes. Special thanks to the following members:

Lloyd Bowling, Jim and Pat Day, Carol Finch, Suzanne Luzier, Vivian Malczyk, Wayne and Paula Winkler. Also, Mr. Ed Sanders, again, loaned us his huge canopy which provided a cool, shaded retreat for all.

We are especially grateful to the "anonymous donor" who stopped by the entrance gate to Smallwood and left a generous $100. to cover parking fees and expenses.

Again, we give our thanks to all who participated.

CHARLES COUNTY CENSUS OF 1870

The 1870 census was the ninth taken in the U.S. and contains information on over 15,700 individuals in 459 pp. available for $35. + $4.00 postage & handling from:
